Reverendo Padre Joaquin Alonso, C.M.F.
Tuy, Pontevedra

Amadísimo Padre:

Felicidades por averle tocado la gran santa lotería del Convento de las Hermanas Doroteas de Tuy, Pontevedra, por la generosidad de Mr. John Haffert tan agradecido a Vuestra Reverencia por sus valiosos trabajos. Considero esto como un extraordinario favor del Inmaculado Corazón de Nuestra Santísima Madre a la Congregación en la dignísima persona de Vuestra Reverencia. Gracias por su invitación para ayudarme en mi proyecto de la Adoración Perpetua Claretiana que intento esta vez en Fatima.

Mi grupo, como unos veinte jóvenes Americanos, va a ir a Fatima en Octubre a prepararse inmediatamente como aspirantes para empezar el Noviciado en la fiesta de la Inmaculada Concepción de Nuestra Divina Madre.

Esperando verle en Octubre.
De Vuestra Reverencia, af.mo. hermano in Corde Matris,

Father Aloysius Ellacuria, C.M.F.

Dear Fr. Aloysius ,

Received a call this morning from Fr. Breault. As I was especially concerned about the vocations which Fr. was sending to Fatima, and I asked him about the screening process. As I explained to Fr. Breault, I thought that Fr. Nylund was to screen all new applicants. Fr. Breault made it clear that this was not the case. Instead, the Blessed Mother is screening all the applicants which ~~rather~~ Breault picks. imagine that! Each the the applicants has a good talk with Vallery and then Vallery tells them receives a message from the blessed mother. What will come next.

In the next few months i feel that Vallery will be sending her own men to the order, and this could produce chaos. I know of no other St. in the church who had the "blessed mother" screening the applications of the prospective candidates. It sound too ridiculous. No, I should say, I am again most distressed that the tiny congregation is being guided in this fashion by Valler and Fr. Breault.

As for Fr. Breault, if he is truly a MAP as he claims to be, when will he put in his year of noviciate.? As again, he has stated that the car he ~~bought in the name of the~~ received from a group who wanted him to carry around the pilgrim virgin, he placed this in the name of the order.

We have no legal papers to this effect. Has he received your permission for the car? He has stated after arriving in Fatima the last weeks of August, he will then go back to preaching in the US with the pilgrim virgin. As a member of the missionaries of perpetual adoration, I understood that all members of the congregation, from the superior on down to the lay brothers would do manual labor. How well is Fr. Breault fitting into the purposes of the Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration? Will he do manual labor, will he subject himself to obedience for a year in the noviciate. Is he following Fr. Aloysius, or Vallery. Whose order is this, Vallery's or Fr. Aloysius.

I may be mistaken in these observations, but I wish to judge no one. If only you could test the vocation for Fr. Breault for the missionaries of perpetual Adoration. Nothing is wrong about carrying around the pilgrim virgin. But this is not the vocation of a Missionaries of Perpetual Adoration which Fr. Breault claims to be.

You will notice in my last few letters, an urgent sense of alarm. I fear that no good will come from Vallery, no matter how good intentions appear to be.

- ② If I should hold onto the tools or prepare them for shipping (approx $300⁰⁰ worth)
- ③ If possible can Father indicate whether or not I should plan to go to Fatima in the near future (4 or 5 mos. or longer ^{wait} ~~and then~~ I could plan my job and other affairs better)
- ④ Would it be better for prospective seminarians to obtain visas in this country - the only difficulty is that they be able to show to the Portuguese Consulate that they have the means of support financially - A letter from Kevin as Secretary and Treasurer to this effect should be sufficient, to indicate in said letter that the order as long as so and so is a member vouchers for his support and conduct while in Portugal.
- ⑤ God love you Fr. Aloysius
